Prayer

Dear Heavenly Father God, forgive me, for I have sinned against you and you alone. I have been self-centered and selfish, wanting my own heart's desires, whether they followed your word or not.
Lord, forgive my pride and arrogance. I need you! I receive your forgiveness and thank you. I forgive myself.

Renew my mind with a desire to follow after you. Take out my heart of stone and put in me a heart of flesh that will be soft soil for your word to penetrate.

Holy Spirit, please help me to change my thinking to follow after you. To hate what you hate and love what you love. I want to be God-centered, God-directed, God-infatuated, and God-exalting.
Create in me a clean heart, O God, and renew a loyal spirit within me.
I invite your love and your truth right now.
In Jesus Name - Amen
